

Salute

ROLAND POINDEXTER

January 2, 2007

As Mayor of the District of Columbia, I would like to take this opportunity to salute Roland Poindexter as a member of the Tuskegee Airmen's Staff of World War II.

Those persons whose contributions have meant the realization of greater opportunities for countless people, are worthy of public praise and recognition. As a longtime resident of the District of Columbia, you are to be commended for your years of dedication, commitment and service. You have been willing to take on many tasks and have faithfully answered the call of duty. As a result, you have earned the respect, love and friendship of others. Your commitment to enhancing the quality of life for others sets an example of "service above self."

On behalf of the residents of the District of Columbia, you have my best wishes in your future endeavors.

Adrian M. Fenty
Mayor, District of Columbia
